COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS

Estancia, New Mexico.
June 3, 1912.

Monday, 10 o'clock A. M.
The Honorable Board of County Commissioners met on this day at 10 o'clock A. M., as per adjournment of its previous session, with chairman Lorenzo Zamora and commissioner Juan C. Sanchez, clerk Manuel Sanchez, Jr., by his deputy, Acasio Gallegos, interpreter Julian Sanchez and Sheriff Julius Meyer, present.

After reading and approving the minutes of the previous meeting the board organized as a board of equalization and received the returns of the assessor, Antonio Salazar, which the board proceeded to canvass.

Adjourned until 1 o'clock P. M.

Afternoon Session.
The board met as per adjournment with the same members and officers present.

There being a quorum present, the board proceeded to business.

Action was deferred on the return of Valentin Candelaria until the regular July term.

The assessor was ordered to make out a return for the S. Candelaria Brothers' firm for the sum of $500.00 in Mdse., and the clerk was ordered to pass due notice to said firm in regards to the board's action.

Now comes C. R. Easley and enters his appearance as attorney for C. F. Easley, Receiver for the New Mexico Fuel and Iron Company, in the matter of the appeal for the action of the assessor, raising the valuation on the La Salina Land Grant, and asked the board that the Assessor's action be not sustained.

After due consideration the board deferred the action in the matter until the regular July term, and ordered the Clerk to take advice from the Attorney General, as to whether the La Salina Land Grant should be assessed as Mineral or as other kind of land.

The board now adjourns until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock A. M.

Tuesday, 9 o'clock A. M.

Morning Session.

The board met pursuant to adjournment of the previous day. The two members being present the board proceeded to business.

In the matter of the property return of Mrs. J. C. Corn, the board raised the assessments $120.00, and ordered the clerk to notify Mrs. Corn in regard to the board's action.

Adjourned until 1 o'clock P. M.

Afternoon Session.

There being a quorum present the board proceeded to business.

Now comes W. Dunlavy, Vice President and Manager for the Willard Town Site Co., and asks the board to deduct the penalty and cost of publication on the thirty lots that were advertised for sale.

The board decided that the matter was out of its jurisdiction and ordered the clerk to write a letter to the proper authority recommending the said reduction to be made, for the reason that the publication of the thirty lots was caused by mistake.

Dunlavy now asked the board not to sustain the action of the assessor in raising the valuation on the Willard Town Site Co., for the present year.

After close investigation the board decided to reduce the Willard Town Site Co., assessments to the sum of $2680.00.

The board now adjourns until Wednesday 9 o'clock A. M.

Morning Session.
